

Henry Allen & Son FURNISHING
UNDERTAKERS
88 Main Street.
LADY ASSISTANT WHEN REQUESTED.

WHY BUY THE COMMON
Chocolates
WHEN YOU CAN GET THE
DELICIOUS
Apollo
50c, 60c and 80c a lb.
N. D. Sevin & Son
SOLE AGENTS

FALL STYLES
including the latest patterns, ready for inspection.
Quality, minus the high price tag, tells the story of our success.
Whether you wish to order or not, we want to show you the new line and fashions for FALL.
THE JOHNSON CO.,
Merchant Tailors, Chapman Bldg.
65 Broadway.

SPECIAL SALE FOR THIS WEEK ONLY.
Bananas 18 for 25c
Sweet Oranges 20c a dozen and up Lewney's Chocolates 25c per box

The Boston Candy Kitchen, 56 Franklin Street.

A new and complete line of Fall Woolens received.
Come in and have a look.

JOHN KUKLA, Merchant Tailor, Franklin Square.

WOLF

DENTISTRY

Crown and Bridge work is the work that stands the test of time. No plate to cover the roof of your mouth; no falling down; beautiful and as firm as your natural teeth. The perfect work of today and absolutely without pain in its insertion.
Tel on parle Francaise.
All operations guaranteed.

DR. BEARDSLEY,
237 Main Street.

Sweet Potatoes are coming good.
Green Corn and Shell Beans are plenty.
Melons never were better.
Lettuce, Parsley, Etc.

PEOPLE'S MARKET,
6 Franklin St.

Orders taken for all kinds of Hair Goods.
Your own Combs made up.
Hair Ornaments, Toilet
Requisites, Chiropody, Manicuring, Shampooing, Face and Scalp Massage.

Fannie M. Gibson
ROOM 30, CENTRAL BLDG. Tel. 505 may 23d

OPEN
Del-Hoff Cafe
Business Men's Lunch a specialty.
Also Regular Dinner, fifty cents.
HAYES BROS., Props.

DR. CHAS. D. LAMB,
VETERINARIAN
Office at Dodge's Stable, Bath Street.
House, 16 Town St. Telephone 618-b.

Funeral
GAGER
Director
and Embalmer

70 Franklin St., Bulletin Bldg.
Telephone 642-2.
Prompt service day or night.
Lady Assistant.

DR. CHAS. D. LAMB,
VETERINARIAN
Office at Dodge's Stable, Bath Street.
House, 16 Town St. Telephone 618-b.

There is no advertising medium in Norwich equal to the Bulletin for business results.

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Thursday, Sept. 2, 1909.

The Bulletin should be delivered everywhere in the city before 8 a. m.
Subscribers who fail to receive it by that time will confer a favor by reporting the fact to The Bulletin Co.

THE WEATHER.

Forecast for Today.

Forecast for New England: Fair and cooler Thursday; Friday fair and cool; moderate northwest winds, becoming light and variable.
Predictions from the New York Harald: On Thursday fair and considerably cooler weather will prevail, with fresh westerly or northwesterly winds and Friday fair weather, with lower temperatures.

Observations in Norwich.

The following records, reported from Sevin's pharmacy, show the change in temperature and the barometric changes Wednesday:

	Ther. Bar.
7 a. m.	64 29.96
12 m.	72 29.88
6 p. m.	61 29.83
High and low, 77.

Comparisons.

Predictions for Wednesday—Showers, cooler, variable winds.
Wednesday's weather—as predicted.

Sun. Moon and Tides.
Rises.	High Water.
Day. a. m. p. m.	p. m.

20	5.12	6.38	8.45	7.10
21	5.13	6.34	9.22	7.10
22	5.14	6.31	10.00	7.10
23	5.15	6.29	10.47	7.10
24	5.16	6.28	11.43	7.10
25	5.17	6.28	12.45	7.10
26	5.18	6.28	1.45	7.10

Six hours after high water it is low tide, which is followed by flood tide.

NORWICH TOWN

Primitive Beginnings of Watch Hill Recalled—Return of Vacationists—

A recent local visitor to Watch Hill recalls the fact that the first keeper of the light there was George Nash, a built a two-story house, which when added to and added to became the present Watch Hill house. His two brothers built small cottages and looked a few boarders. One of these cottages is now the Atlantic house.

There were no small stores in 1860.
Albert and John had a house which Governor Wallin afterwards bought and occupied. The owner of a building lot near the golf grounds which was bought for a small sum recently refused $80,000 for it.

At the time of the September gale of 1814 a family was living near in 1860.
The life saving station stands. When the storm came they were obliged to climb from the windows, and take refuge behind a rock. From there they saw their home swept out to sea with all their possessions.

Briefs and Personals.

Miss Ethel Manning returned to her home, on West Town street, Tuesday from Block Island.

Mrs. Harry Tarbox of Providence is the guest of Mrs. Rutherford Snow of Huntington avenue.

Miss Corbin and her niece, Miss Phoebe Lathrop, spent Wednesday in New London and at Ocean Beach.

Mrs. Jeannette Campbell, Mrs. Noyes D. Chase and Mrs. Carlos B. Eccleston spent the day recently in Palmerton.

Mrs. Nelson Wheeler and family, who have been guests of Mrs. Iva Wheeler, returned on Wednesday to their home in Danvers.

Mrs. Louis Olsen of Scotland road, with Mrs. D. R. Talbot and Miss Beth Talbot, were Monday guests of F. R.
Jackson of Willimantic.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rathbun and daughter, Mildred, and Howard Ballou of Providence are guests of Mrs. A. R.
Keables of New London turnpike.

New Principal Arrives.
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Yerrington have returned from a visit with friends in Clinton.

Miss Lottie Blackman is at her home on Washington street from a trip to the Adirondacks.

Dr. Marion Blackman of Philadelphia is the guest of the Misses Blackman of Washington street.

George F. Hyde of Washington street returned on Tuesday from a few weeks' stay on Block Island.

Mrs. W. H. Fitch and Mrs. S. W.
Haughton have returned from a brief visit in Harwichport, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Hyde and Miss Mary B. Hyde came on Tuesday from their summer home on the South Bluff, Block Island.

Miss Maud Davies, a former resident of Norwich town, who has been teaching in Washington street school, Harford, goes this fall to a school in Montclair, N. J.

Miss Day and Miss Denison of the Johnson home recently enjoyed a 25 mile auto trip in the vicinity of Norwich with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meach of Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Dunn of Stamford, who are on their way home from a trip to New Hampshire, spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Noyes D. Chase of Otisville.

Mr. Brown and family of Norwich have moved into one of Ira Wheeler's houses on Huntington avenue. Mr.
Brown is to be the principal of the West Town Street school.

At Crescent Beach.
Miss Ruth Ryser of Norwich spent Sunday with her parents at the Ryser cottage.

Louis Champlain of Putnam won the bowling contest at the Crescent Park athletic last week, bowling 274. Mrs.
Brunn of New York city, who has been the highest bowler among the ladies the past two weeks, again carried off the honors, bowling 226.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sabin and son Ellsworth, and Judith Hopkins of Putnam are stopping at the Aurora cottage.

Frank E. King, William H. D. Avey and W. H. Covey of Norwich were recent visitors here.

North Haven.—Although improving from the attack of typhoid fever with which he was stricken a few weeks ago, Senator Stiles is still very ill.

Miss Gertrude Anderson of Angley, N. J., is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Bert Payor this week.

William Bourgeois of Merchant avenue in the guest of his sister, Mrs. W.
H. Bugge in Middletown this week.

Wilfred Beauregard of Hunters avenue has recently purchased a new team of big bay horses which have just come from the west.

Pace That Kills.
"Two lives lost, two records made, in 'opening race,' says the headline.
And that epitomizes the pace that kills."
—Atlantic Journal.

WGWAN FESTIVAL AT WATCH HILL

Annual Benefit for the Church in that Locality Opened with Bad Weather—Attractive Features for the Remaining Days.

One of the annual events looked for at this time of the year, the wig-wan festival at the Mohegan church, on the hill below Trading Cove, was opened on Wednesday, although a good number during the day and evening, though not so many as if the weather had been fine in the afternoon and on that account the festival will be held for two more days, Thursday and Friday. This year marked the fiftieth on which the women of the Mohegan sewing society have held the wigwan, whose proceeds are used for the support of the church, where the descendants of the old Indian tribe worship.

With the succeeding years the number left to do the work has grown smaller, but the diminishing band has willing workers whose efforts always result in making the wigwan festival attractive and inducing liberal patrons. This year, the festival was opened by the society, Mrs. N. L.
Lemoyne, Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Fielding, Deacon Saunders and Henry DeBorke. Miss Lizzie Hunter was the hostess for the dinner and the Miss Emma Baker the cashier of the festival.

Wednesday afternoon the storm
came just in time to catch a good number on the grounds and the contents of the tables all had to be whisked off in a hurry and taken to the evening and supper was served in the wigwan to a good number. P. W.
Bush of New London, a singer with a pleasing voice, was in attendance during the day and led congregational singing in the church when those present wished to sing.

Another interesting feature was
a poem written specially for the occasion by J. J. Kinney, a resident of the State Prison, at Groton. The teamster during the festival is
John A. Smith.

Within the wigwan the following
were found at various departments:
Cake table, Mrs. D. Skeels and Mrs.
Gertrude Harris; fancy table, Mrs. L.
Avery and Mrs. Addie Adams; the dianthe table, Mrs. Florence Cook; candy
table, Mrs. Lydia Fielding. Fortunes were told by Mrs. Albert Fielding with a satisfying insight into the future.
Ice cream was sold by Donald Meach
and Viola Derosa.

One of the important parts of the festival, when a menu is provided that includes the toothsome Mohegan suc-
cotash, oyster stew, clam chowder,
corn ham and tongue, mince pie,
cheese, brown and white bread, tea,
coffee and cake, and the Indian yoke-saw, which is a distinctive feature of the festival.

Wednesday afternoon the storm
came just in time to catch a good
number on the grounds and the contents of the tables all had to be whisk-
ed off in a hurry and taken to the
evening and supper was served in the
wigwan to a good number. P. W.
Bush of New London, a singer with a
pleasing voice, was in attendance during the day and led congregational
singing in the church when those present wished to sing.

Another interesting feature was
a poem written specially for the occasion by J. J. Kinney, a resident of
the State Prison, at Groton. The
teamster during the festival is
John A. Smith.

Within the wigwan the following
were found at various departments:
Cake table, Mrs. D. Skeels and Mrs.
Gertrude Harris; fancy table, Mrs. L.
Avery and Mrs. Addie Adams; the
dianthe table, Mrs. Florence Cook; candy
table, Mrs. Lydia Fielding. Fortunes
were told by Mrs. Albert Fielding with
a satisfying insight into the future.
Ice cream was sold by Donald Meach
and Viola Derosa.

One of the important parts of the
festival, when a menu is provided that
includes the toothsome Mohegan suc-
cotash, oyster stew, clam chowder,
corn ham and tongue, mince pie,
cheese, brown and white bread, tea,
coffee and cake, and the Indian yoke-
saw, which is a distinctive feature of
the festival.

Wednesday afternoon the storm
came just in time to catch a good
number on the grounds and the contents of the tables all had to be whisk-
ed off in a hurry and taken to the
evening and supper was served in the
wigwan to a good number. P. W.
Bush of New London, a singer with a
pleasing voice, was in attendance during the day and led congregational
singing in the church when those present wished to sing.

Another interesting feature was
a poem written specially for the occasion by J. J. Kinney, a resident of
the State Prison, at Groton. The
teamster during the festival is
John A. Smith.

Within the wigwan the following
were found at various departments:
Cake table, Mrs. D. Skeels and Mrs.
Gertrude Harris; fancy table, Mrs. L.
Avery and Mrs. Addie Adams; the
dianthe table, Mrs. Florence Cook; candy
table, Mrs. Lydia Fielding. Fortunes
were told by Mrs. Albert Fielding with
a satisfying insight into the future.
Ice cream was sold by Donald Meach
and Viola Derosa.

One of the important parts of the
festival, when a menu is provided that
includes the toothsome Mohegan suc-
cotash, oyster stew, clam chowder,
corn ham and tongue, mince pie,
cheese, brown and white bread, tea,
coffee and cake, and the Indian yoke-
saw, which is a distinctive feature of
the festival.

Wednesday afternoon the storm
came just in time to catch a good
number on the grounds and the contents of the tables all had to be whisk-
ed off in a hurry and taken to the
evening and supper was served in the
wigwan to a good number. P. W.
Bush of New London, a singer with a
pleasing voice, was in attendance during the day and led congregational
singing in the church when those present wished to sing.

Another interesting feature was
a poem written specially for the occasion by J. J. Kinney, a resident of
the State Prison, at Groton. The
teamster during the festival is
John A. Smith.

Within the wigwan the following
were found at various departments:
Cake table, Mrs. D. Skeels and Mrs.
Gertrude Harris; fancy table, Mrs. L.
Avery and Mrs. Addie Adams; the
dianthe table, Mrs. Florence Cook; candy
table, Mrs. Lydia Fielding. Fortunes
were told by Mrs. Albert Fielding with
a satisfying insight into the future.
Ice cream was sold by Donald Meach
and Viola Derosa.

One of the important parts of the
festival, when a menu is provided that
includes the toothsome Mohegan suc-
cotash, oyster stew, clam chowder,
corn ham and tongue, mince pie,
cheese, brown and white bread, tea,
coffee and cake, and the Indian yoke-
saw, which is a distinctive feature of
the festival.

Wednesday afternoon the storm
came just in time to catch a good
number on the grounds and the contents of the tables all had to be whisk-
ed off in a hurry and taken to the
evening and supper was served in the
wigwan to a good number. P. W.
Bush of New London, a singer with a
pleasing voice, was in attendance during the day and led congregational
singing in the church when those present wished to sing.

Another interesting feature was
a poem written specially for the occasion by J. J. Kinney, a resident of
the State Prison, at Groton. The
teamster during the festival is
John A. Smith.

Within the wigwan the following
were found at various departments:
Cake table, Mrs. D. Skeels and Mrs.
Gertrude Harris; fancy table, Mrs. L.
Avery and Mrs. Addie Adams; the
dianthe table, Mrs. Florence Cook; candy
table, Mrs. Lydia Fielding. Fortunes
were told by Mrs. Albert Fielding with
a satisfying insight into the future.
Ice cream was sold by Donald Meach
and Viola Derosa.

One of the important parts of the
festival, when a menu is provided that
includes the toothsome Mohegan suc-
cotash, oyster stew, clam chowder,
corn ham and tongue, mince pie,
cheese, brown and white bread, tea,
coffee and cake, and the Indian yoke-
saw, which is a distinctive feature of
the festival.

Wednesday afternoon the storm
came just in time to catch a good
number on the grounds and the contents of the tables all had to be whisk-
ed off in a hurry and taken to the
evening and supper was served in the
wigwan to a good number. P. W.
Bush of New London, a singer with a
pleasing voice, was in attendance during the day and led congregational
singing in the church when those present wished to sing.

Another interesting feature was
a poem written specially for the occasion by J. J. Kinney, a resident of
the State Prison, at Groton. The
teamster during the festival is
John A. Smith.

Within the wigwan the following
were found at various departments:
Cake table, Mrs. D. Skeels and Mrs.
Gertrude Harris; fancy table, Mrs. L.
Avery and Mrs. Addie Adams; the
dianthe table, Mrs. Florence Cook; candy
table, Mrs. Lydia Fielding. Fortunes
were told by Mrs. Albert Fielding with
a satisfying insight into the future.
Ice cream was sold by Donald Meach
and Viola Derosa.

One of the important parts of the
festival, when a menu is provided that
includes the toothsome Mohegan suc-
cotash, oyster stew, clam chowder,
corn ham and tongue, mince pie,
cheese, brown and white bread, tea,
coffee and cake, and the Indian yoke-
saw, which is a distinctive feature of
the festival.

Wednesday afternoon the storm
came just in time to catch a good
number on the grounds and the contents of the tables all had to be whisk-
ed off in a hurry and taken to the
evening and supper was served in the
wigwan to a good number. P. W.
Bush of New London, a singer with a
pleasing voice, was in attendance during the day and led congregational
singing in the church when those present wished to sing.

Another interesting feature was
a poem written specially for the occasion by J. J. Kinney, a resident of
the State Prison, at Groton. The
teamster during the festival is
John A. Smith.

Within the wigwan the following
were found at various departments:
Cake table, Mrs. D. Skeels and Mrs.
Gertrude Harris; fancy table, Mrs. L.
Avery and Mrs. Addie Adams; the
dianthe table, Mrs. Florence Cook; candy
table, Mrs. Lydia Fielding. Fortunes
were told by Mrs. Albert Fielding with
a satisfying insight into the future.
Ice cream was sold by Donald Meach
and Viola Derosa.

One of the important parts of the
festival, when a menu is provided that
includes the toothsome Mohegan suc-
cotash, oyster stew, clam chowder,
corn ham and tongue, mince pie,
cheese, brown and white bread, tea,
coffee and cake, and the Indian yoke-
saw, which is a distinctive feature of
the festival.

Wednesday afternoon the storm
came just in time to catch a good
number on the grounds and the contents of the tables all had to be whisk-
ed off in a hurry and taken to the
evening and supper was served in the
wigwan to a good number. P. W.
Bush of New London, a singer with a
pleasing voice, was in attendance during the day and led congregational
singing in the church when those present wished to sing.

Another interesting feature was
a poem written specially for the occasion by J. J. Kinney, a resident of
the State Prison, at Groton. The
teamster during the festival is
John A. Smith.

Within the wigwan the following
were found at various departments:
Cake table, Mrs. D. Skeels and Mrs.
Gertrude Harris; fancy table, Mrs. L.
Avery and Mrs. Addie Adams; the
dianthe table, Mrs. Florence Cook; candy
table, Mrs. Lydia Fielding. Fortunes
were told by Mrs. Albert Fielding with
a satisfying insight into the future.
Ice cream was sold by Donald Meach
and Viola Derosa.

One of the important parts of the
festival, when a menu is provided that
includes the toothsome Mohegan suc-
cotash, oyster stew, clam chowder,
corn ham and tongue, mince pie,
cheese, brown and white bread, tea,
coffee and cake, and the Indian yoke-
saw, which is a distinctive feature of
the festival.

Wednesday afternoon the storm
came just in time to catch a good
number on the grounds and the contents of the tables all had to be whisk-
ed off in a hurry and taken to the
evening and supper was served in the
wigwan to a good number. P. W.
Bush of New London, a singer with a
pleasing voice, was in attendance during the day and led congregational
singing in the church when those present wished to sing.

Another interesting feature was
a poem written specially for the occasion by J. J. Kinney, a resident of
the State Prison, at Groton. The
teamster during the festival is
John A. Smith.

Within the wigwan the following
were found at various departments:
Cake table, Mrs. D. Skeels and Mrs.
Gertrude Harris; fancy table, Mrs. L.
Avery and Mrs. Addie Adams; the
dianthe table, Mrs. Florence Cook; candy
table, Mrs. Lydia Fielding. Fortunes
were told by Mrs. Albert Fielding with
a satisfying insight into the future.
Ice cream was sold by Donald Meach
and Viola Derosa.

One of the important parts of the
festival, when a menu is provided that
includes the toothsome Mohegan suc-
cotash, oyster stew, clam chowder,
corn ham and tongue, mince pie,
cheese, brown and white bread, tea,
coffee and cake, and the Indian yoke-
saw, which is a distinctive feature of
the festival.

Wednesday afternoon the storm
came just in time to catch a good
number on the grounds and the contents of the tables all had to be whisk-
ed off in a hurry and taken to the
evening and supper was served in the
wigwan to a good number. P. W.
Bush of New London, a singer with a
pleasing voice, was in attendance during the day and led congregational
singing in the church when those present wished to sing.

Another interesting feature was
a poem written specially for the occasion by J. J. Kinney, a resident of
the State Prison, at Groton. The
teamster during the festival is
John A. Smith.

Within the wigwan the following
were found at various departments:
Cake table, Mrs. D. Skeels and Mrs.
Gertrude Harris; fancy table, Mrs. L.
Avery and Mrs. Addie Adams; the
dianthe table, Mrs. Florence Cook; candy
table, Mrs. Lydia Fielding. Fortunes
were told by Mrs. Albert Fielding with
a satisfying insight into the future.
Ice cream was sold by Donald Meach
and Viola Derosa.

OBITUARY.

Rev. Thomas P. Joynt.

Rev. Thomas P. Joynt, rector of St.
Mary's Cathedral church in New London since 1882, died Wednesday morning about 7 o'clock at the parochial residence on Huntington street, New London. Since Saturday last it was apparent that his death was near at hand.

Reverend Joynt was the last of his family. His father died while he was a young man. His mother died when he was assistant rector in Jewett city about 23 years ago, and his sister died about 23 years ago.

Father Joynt was a member of the St. Mary's Star of the Sea Temperance society, of which he was the chaplain, and also a member of the St.
John's Literary association, taking a great interest in both of these societies.

Rev. Thomas P. Joynt was born in Port Edward, N. Y., in the year 1849.
During his early boyhood he showed an inclination to enter the priesthood and after being educated in the public schools of his native town, at the age of sixteen he entered the college, where he began his classical studies.

In 1871 he entered the Grand seminary of theology.
His ordination to the priesthood took place in 1874, when he was ordained by the late Archbishop Fabry.

He was the assistant pastor of St.
Mary's church of Putnam, where he was assistant to Rev. Eugene Fulgentine for the period of six years. He was then appointed as assistant to Rev.
Michael McAuley of Windsor Locks, and two years later was assistant to Rev. John F. Walsh of St. Rose's church of Meriden.

That same year Father Joynt was appointed rector of St. Mary's Cathedral church, the mission at Groton, and Vinton being in his charge. He remained there five years.

He was then appointed rector of St. Mary's Star of the Sea church on June 6, 1882, succeeding Rev. Thomas Broderick.

At that time and for many years after Montville and Groton both had missions which were in Father Joynt's charge. His parishioners were increased from that parish and Groton was set apart a few years ago. So extensive has St. Mary's parish become that McAle adding three assistants for several years.

During the 26 years of Father Joynt's administration of the parish it has been a most successful one. The parish has been greatly improved, a convent was erected in the year 1891, and the Ladies' High school and a parochial school was constructed. In addition to these improvements a large indebitedness was paid.

During his pastorate there Father Joynt has made among those of his parishioners a host of friends, and his memory. Many times he had occasion to address audiences